Product Name :

Silver Duct Tape 50mm

Product Code :

SLE/S/14

Description :

Silver Duct Tape 50mm (Product Code: SLE/S/14) is a silver, waterproof cloth tape used for strong general-purpose repairs, bundling, sealing cartons and building projects in schools, workshops and laboratories. It is made from a lamination of polythene film and cotton cloth carrying a very strong rubber adhesive, which gives a tough tape with a water-resistant face. It is supplied by Jain Scientific Equipments Pvt Ltd (ScienceLab), Ambala, India, which works as a laboratory equipment supplier in India and for overseas buyers.

What Is Silver Duct Tape Used For?

The cotton cloth layer gives duct tape its strength, the polythene face keeps water out and the rubber adhesive grips firmly, so it is the tape people reach for when something must be held together quickly. In schools it mends torn storage boxes and book spines, fixes cables neatly along the floor, bundles apparatus for storage, labels crates and holds together models, rafts and bridges in design projects.

Apply it to clean, dry surfaces and press firmly along the full length for the best hold. The strong rubber adhesive can lift paint or leave residue on delicate surfaces, so test a small area first and peel slowly at a low angle when removing it. Teachers running design challenges with STEM science kits in India often keep a roll on hand for building and repairing student models.
