Description :

Microslide Five Kingdoms of Life (Product Code: SLE/PS/90) is a Microslide of 8 related 35mm images, photographed through a microscope, used to teach the five-kingdom classification of living things in school biology. It shows examples from Monera, Protista, Fungi, Plants and Animals, from nitrogen-fixing bacteria at 2000x and Gloeocapsa to Paramecium, Spirogyra, a mushroom, onion and Elodea, opening with Euglena as a classification puzzle. It is supplied by Jain Scientific Equipments Pvt Ltd (ScienceLab), Ambala, India.

Specifications

Parameter	Detail
Format	8 related 35mm images for a Microslide Viewer
Opening image	Euglena – a classification puzzle (400x)
Kingdom Monera	Nitrogen-fixing bacteria (2000x); Gloeocapsa (1000x)
Kingdom Protista	Paramecium (100x); Spirogyra (150x)
Fungus Kingdom	The mushroom (1/2x and 400x)
Plant Kingdom	Onion and Elodea (150x)
Animal Kingdom	Animal Kingdom image (750x)
Labelling	Arrows and callouts on each image
Folder	Detailed text folder with questions; pocket keeps the Microslide
Product code	SLE/PS/90

What Is the Microslide Five Kingdoms of Life Used For?

Classification lessons stick better when students see real organisms instead of names on a chart. The set opens with Euglena, which has chloroplasts like a plant yet swims like an animal, so the class has to argue where it belongs. From there it moves kingdom by kingdom, from the simplest cells in Monera to the Animal Kingdom.

The mushroom appears at both 1/2x and 400x, helping students connect a familiar fruiting body with its microscopic structure. Use the Microslide alongside a classification chart for biology class, asking groups to list the features that place each organism in its kingdom.

Supplier

ScienceLab, the trading name of Jain Scientific Equipments Private Limited in Ambala, Haryana, supplies Microslide Five Kingdoms of Life to schools that teach classification through images, models and posters. Biology departments, teacher-training colleges and dealers in India and international markets can order it with the rest of their classification resources. Details about the comp
